

We are looking for a dedicated character with a passion for automation engineering. PETRONIK Automation has been a specialist in automation technology market ever since 1986 and at home all around the world. Become a part of a future-oriented and innovative company and evolve the entire engineering and development of our measurement and control plants with us together within several branches of automation engineering inside a highly professional environment.

ELECTRICAL ENGINEER AUTOMATION TECHNOLOGY M/F

PETRONIK Automation GmbH | Bitburg | Germany

Your challenge

Development and implementation of automation solutions for the process industry domestically and abroad | Deployment of customized software solutions | Programming based on several software platforms | Creation of visualization systems | Preparation of function descriptions of the entire plant | Documentation of development process

Your qualification

University degree of electrical engineering with focus on automation technology | Knowledge in the programming of programmable logic controllers and visualization systems | Experience in the usage of industrial bus systems | Flexibility in the solution development | High readiness to travel nationally and internationally | Team-oriented way of working

We provide

Employment with challenging and varying tasks | Unlimited employment contract | Good development opportunities | Attractive base salary | Very good social security benefits by our company own PETRONIK occupational pension scheme | Flexible working hours | Flat hierarchies

Your application

Please send your application only via E-Mail:

PETRONIK Automation GmbH | Daniela Mohr | Human Resources | daniela.mohr@petronik.com | +49 6561 9496 114

www.petronik.com